Gypsy's Prophecy Comes True. The strange story of how a guilty man was driven to suicide by a gypsy's prophecy was told at an inquest held near Braintree, England, on Friday.

At Michaelmas last a strange man hired a farm near Braintree, and there lived alone, a young woman, who he said was a sister, occasionally visiting pa

About a month ago a gypsy called at his house, and told him he had ten weeks

Se upset was he at this intelligence that he took to drink, and on Wednesday he presented himself at the Braintree police station and offered to give himself up. The police did not credit the man's story. But next day he was found dead in bed with his throat cut.

The papers found upon him showed that he belonged to Alcester, Warwickshire, where he kept the Three Tuns Hotel, until six months ago, when he disappeared, and a warrant was issued for his arrest, but could not be executed.

His real name was Joseph James which all the materials, from thread to One of silken linings, are of American make. The background is a pretty shade of blue, through which at intervals is woven the figure of a dove. The filling is of gold unsel and the pattern has been destroyed so that the President's wife will wear an exclusive costume. The silk was woven in Paterson, N. J. Just what the pattern of the gown is has not been announced. The President, when he is inaugurated, will wear a suit of clothes which also was woven and made built in this country and by American workmen.

Pertect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling o unessiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that "I have a world of conremedy says: "I have a world of con-fidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success.
